

Chapter 22.1

Johann Adam Quanz

Adam Quanz was born in Buchenau, KurHessen, Germany, on August 14th, 1831. He came to America with his brother John in 1846. They located in Vernon N.J. on March 22nd, 1862. He was married to Elizabeth Kincaid in 1860. They settled in Richwood Ohio and resided there until 1881. In that year they moved to Marvin, (now Glade), Kansas where he lived until the 2nd of May, this year. On that day he came to Syracuse and made his home with his youngest son John A. Quanz living on the Michener place two miles north of town until his Saviour called him to his heavenly home.

There were twelve children born to Mr. and Mrs. Quanz, five died in infancy, one 18 years ago, six still survive them - three sons and three daughters, one daughter lives in Ohio, and three sons and two daughters live in Kansas.

"Grandpa Quanz" as he was familiarly known and his wife were converted and united with the Methodist Episcopal Church in 1856. They lived devoted Christian lives together until God called the beloved wife and companion home to glory in the year 1898. Brother Quanz had been afflicted for many years, but bore his sufferings with wonderful fortitude and patience. His sweet and humble Christian life was a benediction in the home and to all who were privileged to know him.

For twenty-five years he was a class leader in the Methodist church, a Sunday School teacher and Epworth League worker. He was for many years superintendent of the House Department of his Sunday School, he was also an ardent prohibitionist and among the foremost of those who love righteousness and hate iniquity. To this dear Saint of God death had no terrors, he knew and felt his sins forgiven through faith in Jesus' blood, and his acceptance with his heavenly Father. He just patiently waited for the summons to come up higher, and that summons came at 9 o'clock on the morning of September 28th, 1906. His loved ones and a few friends were at his bedside as the spirit of the Christian Warrior took its flight far beyond the starry sky.

Owing to Grandpa Quanz' s wonderful vitality the final struggle was long and painful, but peace, sweet peace filled his heart, and the longing to be gone to his heavenly home was evident to the last, his departure was almost triumphant one because his faith was firmly fixed on the Rock of Ages,

The deceased was 75 years 1 month 14 days old, and a good ripe age it was, a half-century of it was joyfully spent in the Service of King Emmanuel whom he loved so well.

A simple funeral service was held at the home by Rev. T. A. Brunner pastor of the Methodist Church in Syracuse, Kansas associated by friends who sang the favorite hymns that had given infinite comfort to the aged pilgrim.

The body was taken on the Santa Fe by the son John A. Quanz to the Marvin Cemetery in Glade, Kansas for burial alongside of the beloved wife and companion who preceded him a few years.

Farewell. Veteran of the Cross, the warfare has ended for you,

The laurels of victory shall adorn your brow, when Jesus comes to reward his servants.

"A CARD OF THANKS"

We desire to heartily thank our many friends who have shown their sympathy and love during our sad bereavement in the death of our dear father.

Johan "Adam" Quanz (my great-grandfather) and his older brother John came to America in 1847 from Buchenau in KurHessen, Germany. One brother, Adam, kept the German spelling of his last name. The other accepted the American version (John Quantz or Quince). They left their homeland because of religious issues and settled in New Jersey.

Adam and his brother John were the only ones in their family to come to America. It is told their mother watched them leave and waved to them as long as she could see them, but that was her last sight of them, as they never ever returned to the land of their birth.

In New Jersey, Adam met and married Elizabeth Kincaid at Vernon, Sussex, E. G. on March 22, 1852. Four children were born in New Jersey.

In 1881, the family moved to Marvin, Kansas. Adam's wife, Elizabeth, died January 20, 1898. In 1906, Adam moved to Syracuse, Kansas to live with his son John Adam and wife Emma. He died September 28, 1906 and is buried beside his wife in the Marvin Cemetery in Glade, Kansas.

Obituary for Elizabeth Kincaid

This quiet community was thoroughly aroused last Thursday afternoon when the news was given and hastily carried about that Mother Quanz is dead as had not been sick, but on the contrary had seemed in rather an unusually happy mood during the morning, and had been working the weekly wash. At noon all seemed as usual, and the men folks hurried off to their work. Father Quanz returned about 4 o'clock, and noticing that the wash was not finished, and not finding his wife about, began the search and presently found her under the clothesline. A few pieces had been pinned on the line, and a garment was in her hand when she had apparently been in the act of reaching up to pin on the line when the stroke came, and she fell over backwards and expired without a struggle. Although weakened by disease, Father Quanz carried her into the house, and after vain efforts to revive her, gave the alarm. Medical aid was summoned at once, but all efforts to resuscitate her were futile.

Does anyone have any information on Adam Quanz, b. 8/14/1831, his children, etc?

Does anyone have information on Elizabeth Kincaid, b. 12/20/1828. They were married 3/22/1852, and I believe they lived some of their later years in Phillips county.

Adam Quanz is buried in the Marvin Cemetery. At first I checked the Fairview Cemetery in Phillipsburg and there were only three listed then I remembered that there was a grain elevator, at one time called "Quanz Grain Co." in Glade, KS a small town 5 miles south of Phillipsburg. There are 14 Quanz's buried there including your Adam, and Quanz, Elizabeth, w-o Adam Quanz born Dec 20, 1828, died Jan 20, 1898. Adam's dates are born Dec 20, 1828, died Sept 28, 1906. The other Quanz names are: Charles Wade, Emma Alice, Herbert Eugene, Ada Chester, Edward, Mary E., J.W.A., Gary Allen, Donald Duane, Nelia, Perl. The 3 Quanz's buried at Phillipsburg Cem (Fairview) are Albert, V. Anna Mae, Dean. The cemetery at Glade is called Marvin after the first name of the town of Glade. I live in Phillips County Kansas. Hope this has been some help to you. John

John: Thanks for the information. It adds a lot to what I have been able to find. The one piece I am missing is the connection between Elizabeth Quanz and the Kincaids of Phillips county. I would like to know who her parents were and her siblings. Thanks again John. I really appreciate it.

6. HERBERT EUGENE³ QUANZ (*CHARLES WADE*², JOHANN "ADAM")¹ was born October 15, 1881 in Phillips County, Phillips, Kansas, USA, and died May 31, 1954 in Smith Center Hospital. He married ADA CHESTER October 28, 1906. She was born July 5, 1863 in Denver, Colorado, USA, and died February 24, 1959 in Phillips County Hospital, Phillips, Kansas, USA.

Notes for ADA CHESTER:

Mrs. Herbert Quanz - Obituary

Ada Quanz, daughter of James and Margaret Chester, was born July 5, 1883 in Denver, Colorado and departed this life at the Phillips County Hospital February 24, 1959 at the age of 75 years, 7 months and 19 days.

Shortly after her birth, her parents moved to Glade for the health of her twin brother Abe???, who passed away in early infancy. After completing school in Glade she clerked in Hansen's General Store, where she endeared herself to everyone making many lifelong friends.

On October 28, 1906 she was united in marriage with Herbert Eugene Quanz and they established their home in Glade where they resided for almost 46 years, prior to Herbert's death in 1954. Three children were born to this union. She helped her husband in business, operating a general store in Glade for a number of years.

Mrs. Quanz was a member of the Glade Methodist Church from early womanhood. She participated in matters of interest to the community including the Ladies' Aid and Royal Neighbors of America, before her health failed.

Her first devotion was to her family those close to her. She cared for her mother and mother-in-law during their declining years. This devotion was in line with her beliefs in the Christian principles. By her deeds she was known as a living example of the teachings of Christ. Her thoughts were always for her children and those near her.

She was constantly sacrificing her own desires and comfort to please and care for others. She derived great pleasure from her grandchildren, bestowing her love upon them in many ways.

She was preceded in death by her husband, her parents, two brothers Harry and Edward, and several brothers and sisters who died in early childhood.

Mrs. Quanz is survived by her two sons, Everatt and Clarence of Glade; a daughter, Marjorie Minton of Denver, Colorado; six grandchildren, 2-Lt. Robert Quanz, serving with the Air Force in Germany, Jnell, Arloa and Barry Quanz of Glade, and Jimmy and Gregory Minton of Denver. Other members of the immediate family are her daughters-in-law, Ruth and Theresa Quanz, and her son-in-law, Albert L. Minton; a sister-in-law, Mrs. Stella Chester of Estes Park, Colorado; four nieces and other relatives.

Her passing touched the hearts of a host of friends and neighbors. Funeral services were held in the Methodist Church in Glade, Kansas, Thursday in the afternoon with Rev. Hams officiating. Music was furnished by Mrs. Earl Williams and Mrs. Isis Randall, with Miss Jnell Quanz accompanying at the piano.

Pallbearers were Cecil Chester, Wayne Chester, Max Keeten, Wayne Shields, Ralph Hand and Alva Nay. Burial was in the Marvin Cemetery, Glade, Kansas.

Card of Thanks

We want to thank everyone for the cards, flowers and other kindnesses shown to our mother during her long stay in the hospital, and to express our gratitude to the hospital personnel. Your thoughtfulness during her illness and at the time of her death has been greatly appreciated.

Clarence Quanz - Obituary

Clarence E. Quanz, son of Herbert and Ada Chester Quanz, was born January 23, 1910, in a stone house in Glade and passes away October 27, 1987, at Phillips County Hospital at the age of 77. He was a lifelong resident of Glade.

He grew to manhood and attended Glade Grade School and Phillipsburg High School and graduated from Kansas Wesleyan Business College in Salina.

After graduating, Clarence was a farmer, cattleman and fertilizer dealer. He became half owner of Quanz Grain of Glade and remained in the grain company for 35 years.

On September 12, 1943 he was united in marriage to Theresa Thomason at the First Christian Church in Phillipsburg by Rev. F.M. McDonald and to this union two children were born.

He was a member of the Glade United Methodist Church where he had served as Sunday School Superintendent; he served on the Glade School Board; was a member of Phillipsburg Masonic Lodge No. 134 where he was a Past Master; was a member of Phillipsburg Commandry No. 51; was a member of Phillipsburg Eastern Star where he was Past Worthy Patron; was a member of Modern Woodmen; a member of the Isis Shrine of Salina where he was a lifetime member of the Camel-herders. He was also a past president of the Prairie Dog Shrine Club.

On their 40th wedding anniversary, Clarence and Theresa took a trip with the Isis Shrine to Mexico. Clarence enjoyed fishing and his favorite sport was baseball, especially the St. Louis Cardinals. He and Theresa enjoyed camping and travelling and had taken several trips since his retirement.

Survivors include his wife, Theresa of the home; his son, Barry of Clayton; his daughter and son-in-law, Arloa and Dan Murphy of WaKeeney; two grandchildren, Darren and Mark Murphy of WaKeeney; one brother and sister-in-law, Everett and Ruth Quanz of Phillipsburg; one sister and brother-in-law, Marjorie and Albert Minton of Denver; and several nieces and nephews.

Clarence took to heart tube Scripture "It is more blessed to give than to receive", for all through his life he gave everyone more than he received. He was a loving husband, father and grandfather, and dearly loved his family.

Memorial services for Clarence E. Quanz were held Friday October 30, 1987 at 11:00 a.m. in the Olliff-Boeve Memorial Chapel of Phillipsburg with Tim Pool and Rev. Henry Wagoner officiating. Anita Elliott was the organist and played "I Believe", Ivory Palaces" and Hawaiian Wedding Sony".

Casket bearers were John Ward, Don Shields, Don McLaughlin, Tom Morgan, Allan Lemon and Larry McKinley. All of Clarence's friends were the honorary bearers. Burial was in the Fairview Cemetery of Phillipsburg with Masonic graveside services by Phillipsburg Masonic Lodge no.134. Arrangements were handled by Olliff-Boeve Memorial Chapel.

Card of Thanks

We wish to thank all our friends, neighbors and other special people who have been so supportive at the time of our loss. Your flowers, memorial gifts, cards, letters, calls and food brought in were all deeply appreciated. We wish to also thank the Phillipsburg Masonic Lodge for our dinner following the service.

Notes for BILLEY LEA QUANZ:

From Billey Quanz Force - Sep. 16, 1986.

My husband, Al, was stationed in Germany from 1953 - 1956 but we never met until 1957 and he was out of the Army by then. Should have met him sooner and he could have looked up some of my family's history.

Our immediate family has three children:

Dave is 24, not married and sells cars,

Tom is 21, not married and was employed by Frontier Airlines until recently. Moved back home here from Salt Lake City until a new reservations agent job became available.

Our Jennifer was 14 last Wednesday and typical teenager always on the phone with music playing loud!

Al works at the local paper mill; has for 26 years now. I worked in a bank for five years, but haven't worked out since Dave was born. Enjoy volunteer work, PTA, room mother, and making quilts.
